

On the Road: The Ultimate Napa Valley & Sonoma County Road Trip

An hours' drive from San Francisco and stretching across several mountain ranges, Northern California's most famous wine regions—Napa and Sonoma counties—are replete with hundreds of wineries and countless notable restaurants and cafés, relaxing spas and enough national parks and trails to counterbalance all of that eating and drinking.

So where to begin on your ultimate road trip through Wine Country? From Napa to Healdsburg, here's how to make the most of your stay.

Sonoma County

When it comes to wineries, Erin Brooks, The Wine Advocate's reviewer for Sonoma County, suggests checking out The Donum Estate. "It's located just a few minutes from the center of Sonoma and is a must-see for visitors to Sonoma County," she says. "Owned by Mei and Allan Warburg, not only are Pinot Noirs and Chardonnays here top notch, but the estate is also home to a world class contemporary sculpture collection by renowned artists including Ai Weiwei and Yayoi Kusama."
