The Donum Estate

SARA L. SCHNEIDER

The producer of exquisite Pinots from Cameros, the Russian River Valley, and the Anderson Valley in Mendocino, the Donum Estate stands apart in this collection. Instead of Sonoma's signature rusticity, Donum has embraced the modern, with clean, geometric lines, blond wood floors, and white everywhere, serving as a backdrop for oversized art. But art isn't confined by walls here—a stunning sculpture collection is taking shape among the ancient olive trees on the grounds, including Chinese sculptor Yue Minjun's compelling "Contemporary Terracotta Warriors." Tastings and tours by appointment.
