

#WineWednesday: Wineries Get Creative During COVID-19 Pandemic

With virtual wine tastings, great deals on shipping, fundraising, and online cooking classes, wineries are providing a grape escape while we shelter in place. Here's to sipping safe—the new normal, at least for a little while longer!

FOR THE ART LOVER

The Donum Estate in Sonoma welcomes wine shipments but also sports a must-see online tour of its amazing art collection. The estate grounds showcase an extraordinary collection of sculptures from talented artists all over the globe. The wines are phenomenal—pinot noir is a highlight—so pour a glass and go on a virtual tour of the property anytime while staying safe at home.
